SET implemented using sorted linked lists

The first column is the problem size (n).
The second column is the measured time (t).
In each problem a series of integers integers 511 … 0 is added to an, initialy empty, set.
Furthermore, in each single problem this process is repeated 1000 times.

"-" using 1:2

t

n